Respect Life

Role of Catholics in Society

Question:

We live in a country that upholds the separation of Church and state. What is the role of Catholics in society?

Answer:

The role of the Church in the world has taken different forms over time, but the theme is the same. Be disciples in it! As the lay faithful — that is, not vowed priest or religious — we are called to live and love in the circumstances of our daily lives. St. John Paul II wrote a document about the laity. In it he wrote, "In their situation in the world God manifests His plan and communicates to them their particular vocation of seeking the Kingdom of God by engaging in temporal affairs and by ordering them according to the plan of God" (On the Lay Members of Christ's Faithful, 15).

God wants us in the hospitals, the board rooms, the law offices, the food pantries, and the little league games! We are to engage in the affairs of the world. But when we're there, we should live the plan of God. We need to respect those around us, engage in just business and legal practices, and love our children. We should care for the earth, use our money wisely, and get to know our neighbors. We must advocate for social policies that respect human dignity and human freedom. No matter our state in life, we are invited to build the kingdom of God!

Calling new Altar Servers: We would like to have more altar servers at each of our weekend Masses at St. Charles-St Ann's so we are inviting more youth to join this wonderful ministry. As we have said so many times, it is always a privilege and an honor to serve at the altar and we are very grateful that so many of you do this with such dedication and devotion. Please contact me if you are interested and we will set up the training sessions. Anyone who has made his/her First Communion is more than welcome to serve beginning in second and or third grade and to serve right up to until graduating from high school. Please contact me at 315-468-2283 if you are interested in serving. ~ Deacon Tony

Lord,

You are the wind in my sails. You guide me as I steer and find direction. You give me the strength to keep on going. You watch over me as I navigate stormy seas. You are the harbor where I stop for rest. You are my encourager when I lose hope. You are the lighthouse that keeps my path safe.

You are with me always.

Thank you,

Amen

A Family Perspective

As Jesus appointed apostles, he also appointed parents to represent him in the family; "make disciples of your children, baptizing and teaching them all I have taught you. Don't worry, I am with you always."
