Prayer Requests

Would you like us to pray for your intentions? Prayer requests can be emailed to Sister Eileen McGrath at emcgrath128@gmail.com. Your requests go directly to the Blessed and Broken Prayer Group who will pray for your intention. All prayer requests are held in confidence and are known only to the prayer intercessors.

Planning Your Will

Please remember St. Patrick and St. Brigid or St. Charles-St. Ann's

A bequest is a wonderful way to express gratitude to God for a lifetime of blessings! The gift that you give establishes a lasting legacy of love for others by helping the Church to continue our Catholic heritage through its many ministries.

Please note: Leaving money to the parish in your will is not assessed and 100% goes to the parish.

Lord,

Acceptance is the answer to all of my problems today. When I am disturbed, it is because I find some person, place, thing, or situation some fact of my life - unacceptable to me, and I can find serenity until I accept the person, place, thing, or situation as being exactly the way it is supposed to be at this moment. Nothing, absolutely nothing happens in God's world by mistake. Until I accept myself, my situation, and my life completely on life's terms, I cannot be happy. I need to concentrate not so much on what happens in the world as on what needs to be changed in me and in my attitudes!.

Amen

A Family Perspective

As the Father "sent his son into the world" so parents send their children into the world "so that the world might be saved" This is the missionary role of the Christian family. Your family is a school where your children develop convictions which enable them to make a difference in the world.

St. Patrick and St. Brigid Food Pantry—

Thank you for your generosity throughout the year. Your gifts of time, food and financial support allows us to continue to offer nourishment to those in need. Thank you for your continuous support.

We are looking for volunteers to visit our people in nursing homes, senior apartments, and homebound.

Your commitment would be to visit one time a month at your convenience.

We have parishioners in several nursing homes throughout Syracuse that unfortunately do not receive visitors on a regular basis.

If you think you you'd like to be a part of this team, please contact Sister Eileen at 315-468-1803 or emcgrath128@gmail.com

It is a very rewarding ministry!!

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and may perpetual light shine upon them. May their souls and all the souls of the faithful departed rest in peace.

Tara Ann Schilling, Eileen Boutin

Respect Life

The more people we have on this earth, the more we become capable of tackling problems. We must understand that overpopulation is a myth. We need to reveal that the abortion industry puts money into the pockets of those who profit from it and only "empowers" itself and not women who are victims of it. We cannot forget that a larger population means more hope, innovation, and freedom for a better and brighter future, not just economically.

Most of all, though, the moral of the story is that abortion hurts more than just the economies of the this world; It hurts women, men and families and kills the innocent unborn lives of millions of babies across the globe.

Holy Hour of Mercy

The Rosary will be recited after morning Masses during the week. Consider staying and praying the rosary for peace.

The Tuesday Prayer Group has resumed meeting Tuesdays at St. Ann's, 3pmWe will meet in the teacher's lounge in the school.

The first Thursday Holy Hour has resumed. 6:30pm at St. Charles Church. Holy Hour will be the first Thursday of each month.

The Blessed and Broken Prayer Group that meets on Thursday nights at 6pm at St. Ann's has resumed. All are most welcome. The hour is spent praying for others in an easy going and prayer centered spirit. If you feel called to join us please do! You may enter through the school door at the front of the building. We hope you will consider joining us for this most worthwhile ministry. Everyone needs prayer—now more than ever.

Blessings,

Sister Eileen

Congratulations on making your

First Communion!

Would you like to become an altar server at St. Charles-St. Ann's? It is a privilege and an honor to serve at the altar and this is also a great way of staying involved with the church in an active way. We are so lucky to have a great group of servers and are always looking for more.

After training you are scheduled every 4-6 weeks at the Mass of your choice (5:15 Saturday or 10:30 Sunday). An email will go out the week before the next schedule is made and you can inform us of any commitments you have so that you are not scheduled. If you have any other questions please reach out to me at katieboyea@yahoo.com.

Some fun things about being an altar server are ...We have a monthly contest in which parishioners vote if they think a server has done a good job, servers can win a gift card to Gannon's, or Target etc. Those servers who join now and continue to serve thru high school graduation receive a scholarship from the parish. Altar serving can be used as volunteer hours for school or Confirmation hours. If you are interested please reach out to Deacon Tony at aparatorel@verizon.net to set up training.

Nazareth Farms is a mission in West Virginia that helps struggling families by doing labor to repair windows, roofs, decks, etc. Each year we have sent a group of teenagers who have made their confirmation to Nazareth Farms for a week in August to experience this awesome ministry.

If you feel this experience would be a good fit for you, please contact Joanne Bataglia 315-422-6952 or either rectory by June 15th.
