All are welcome! Presented by Martha Savage

Heavenly Father, in the name of Jesus Christ, I consecrate to thee all my activities during this coming week.

My labors, my joys, my pleasures, my disappointments, which I offer to the Sacred Heart, to thy sovereign majesty in honor of the abiding presence of Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament and in thanksgiving for the many favors bestowed upon me.

CATHOLIC

The Good Shepherd and the Wolf

I remember very clearly the first movie I watched during my pregnancy with my eldest child. In this film, there is a scene where a young boy is kidnapped and shoved into the back of a van guarded by vicious dogs. His mother persists in trying to free him, even as the dogs snap at her. Their bared teeth and full-throated snarls don't slow her efforts in the slightest.

It wasn't a great movie or even a particularly great scene, but I'll never forget this scene. I'll never forget those dogs.

I had just learned that I was a mother a few days ago. The life growing deep within seemed to me as frail as a whispered secret, but I loved it powerfully. I worried constantly if the baby was safe and healthy. I agonized over signs — real or imagined — that could tell me if the poppyseed-sized child was thriving or failing.

I understood, for the first time in my life, why a woman would charge a pack of attack dogs without hesitation — not because she should, but because she has to.

She could choose not to fight, certainly. She could walk away. But why would she? A future without her son is so much more painful than any physical wound. She may fear for her life, but she fears a life without her child so much more.

The Good Shepherd discourse reveals to us the motivation behind God's actions throughout all of salvation history. From Adam to Noah to Abraham, all the way down to the time of the Messiah and beyond, He keeps trying to get us back. He keeps braving the attack dogs, time after time. He never stops. He never grows weary. And it baffles us: what's in it for Him? we wonder, because we are quicker to give up on ourselves than He is. Why does He keep trying?

He could choose not to fight, sure. But why would He? He doesn't want a future without us.

"I will lay down my life for the sheep." — John 10:11

- Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Live The Liturgy
Inspiration of the Week

Jesus the Good Shepherd knows that real love is an action, not an idea. His sacrifice is the proof of his love for his flock. Let us remember to love one another as the Good Shepherd loves us: not just in words but in actions, in choices, in deeds.

BIRTHRIGHT

As Mother's Day approaches, we would like to collect donations for Birthright of Syracuse.

Birthright exists to help expecting and new mothers by providing them with full layettes that meet the needs of their children. As of right now, we are in a good spot with baby items. But we are finding that our mothers are lacking in hygiene items. Many of our moms lack the funds to buy them and many live in shelters/ motels that do not provide them.

Through Mother's Day we will be collecting shampoo, conditioner, body wash, hand soap and deodorant. Bins are in the entranceway of both churches for your donations.

Thank you in advance!

Spiritual Committee -

The St. Charles-St. Ann Spiritual committee will be meeting on Monday April 22nd at 1:00 pm at St. Charles Church. We are looking forward to planning events for the fall and advent. We invite anyone from St. Charles-St. Ann or St. Patrick and St. Brigid to join us. Our aim is to enhance the spiritual well being of our parishioners and neighbors and for an increase of the Holy Spirit within our communities and hearts. Hope you can attend!

Donations/Disposal - Sr. Eileen is interested in helping parishioners to down size their homes by donating items or by disposal. If you or a family member/friend need help in organizing, disposal of items or donating items please contact her by email at emcgrath128@gmail.com. Her resume includes: St. Ann's Church clean out of church, school, rectory, convent etc!! To that end, you will find at the church entrances a sheet named Donations/Disposal. If you are looking for ways to donate or dispose of items yourself please pick one up. We hope it is helpful.

Join us for the Rosary...

Please join us on Sunday evenings at 6pm at St. Charles Church for the praying of the rosary. We have been gathering each Sunday evening for a half hour to pray the rosary especially for people suffering from serious illnesses.

Bring your rosary and your intentions for those who you are praying for. Together we will storm the heavens in prayer and ask our dear Mother to pray with us as we seek healing, comfort and peace for those who carry difficult crosses.
