A heartfelt "Thank you" to all our parishioners who have gone above and beyond this Christmas Season, but also for the past several months as we have faced the fear of financial difficulty with the onset of COVID. Your generosity continues as it always has! I am very grateful for your support. Let us continue to pray for our parishes, each other, front line workers, and those suffering with the illness and those caring for them, and those grieving the loss of family members and friends.

Thank you also, for all of the cards, gifts, cookies and treats dropped off at the rectory. Your kindness is very much appreciated.

My prayers for a happy, healthy New Year.

Peace,

Father Kevin.

Repeats every Tuesday

2:00PM – 3:30PM

Christian mindfulness is drawn from ancient prayer practices of the Christian contemplative heritage, notably the fathers and mothers of the desert, Lectio Divina (praying the scriptures), The Cloud of Unknowing, St. John of the Cross & St. Theresa of Avila. Being attentive to the Presence of God is not meant to replace other kinds of prayer. Rather, it adds depth of meaning to all prayer. This retreat explores in depth the contemplative prayer practice of living in the present moment with attention and intention. We will explore, create, and practice simple habits for your consistent spiritual growth. Join us for a free four week retreat with Fr. Mark Kaminski here at The Good News Center.

THE BAPTISM OF THE LORD

This is what John the Baptist proclaimed: "One mightier than I is coming after me. I am not worthy to stoop and loosen the thongs of his sandals. I have baptized you with water; he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit." - Mk 1:7-8

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1993 CCO

GLR

There is one Lord, one Faith,

one Baptism (Ep 4:5)

I thank you Lord, for making me a living temple of the Holy Spirit. Thank you for the water of my baptism through which,

on this day, you allowed me to be born to spiritual life.

Family Perspective

The Gospel today points to Jesus' humanity; like us he needed RECOGNITION ("You are my son"), AFFECTION ("My Beloved son"), and AFFIRMATION ("with you I am well pleased.") In our families it is easy to focus on irritating behavior and take for granted all the positives. This New Year take a lesson from God the Father, be an AFFIRMER and not a Blamer.

Thank you for your continued generosity!

Happy New Year!!

Dear Parishioners of St. Patrick and St. Brigid,

We are running low on our supply of Pyx. If you have borrowed one to bring Communion to a loved one, and you are no longer in need of it, would you kindly return it to the sacristy so that others may use it?

If you are still in need of it, please keep it in your possession as long as needed. Thank you!

A community where we are family and we share our many gifts generously

Dear Parish Family,

I am pleased to inform you that you are now able to share your financial gifts to support our parish ...ONLINE. We have been working very hard behind the scenes as a parish staff to bring this exciting new program to our parish. Being able to give online makes donating simple and easy, while at the same time keeping the process safe and secure. We believe that by offering online giving, we will be able to engage more of our parish families to join us in supporting the important work we have been called to do together.

It's very simple to set up a one-time or recurring donation, and allocate the amounts of your choice to any of our different collections. Once you start to use it, you will be able to view your complete, accurate financial records at any time during the year. Those of you who wish to continue using traditional methods of offering may do so, however, I am personally asking that you prayerfully consider switching to giving your gifts online. Your choice to give online will help our parish to be better stewards of our Time, Treasure and Talent.

Take the time to read through the next few pages to learn about the benefits of online giving for both you and our parish. If you have any questions about the program or need help setting up your account, please don't hesitate to call the parish office. Please prayerfully consider giving to our parish community online as it does benefit our parish in many important ways. I am looking forward to growing our parish community together.

Let's begin this journey of faith together,

FR. KEVIN MALONEY

Fr. Kevin Maloney

GOSPEL MEDITATION

ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

We need history. We need it in order to understand ourselves, personally and collectively. The pieces of our histories may not have always been the most positive, honest, exemplary, dignified, proud and best moments of our lives, but they are ours. We have to acknowledge, remember, accept, and often heal them. We cannot forget them or pretend that they never existed. As horrible as the atrocities of events like Auschwitz, brutal injustices committed throughout the human journey, or personal painful experiences in our own stories, we need to remember. These times when humanity in general or people in particular have lost their way are times that need to be reconciled and redeemed.

If we lose the memories, we will make the same mistakes again. The human soul needs a strong sense of affirmation, direction, and clear purpose. Without these essentials, we will easily run amuck and repeat the sins of our past. God's voice throughout history has spoken precisely about this! We are reminded through the voices and example of many prophets and witnesses not to make the same mistakes again, come back to center, discover the purpose given to us by God, maintain a sense of proper direction, seek healing for wounds and be reconciled to our Creator.

Baptism is so incredibly important for the salvation of humankind, not only eternally but here and now. Our existence depends upon it. It gives us the affirmation we need from God by gifting us with the same intimate relationship Jesus had with the Father. We are blessed with the direction and clear purpose we need in order to be productive stewards and faithful Christians. Baptism calls us to remember, accept, and deal with the sins and inequities of our past regardless of how hurtful and serious. We consciously choose to turn away from them and put on the new life of Christ. To do this well, we must look hard and long at our sins and failings, listen to what they are saying and learn from them. If we ignore the past, collectively or personally, or pretend that it never happened, we will never grow. We will surely die.

People need to hear the message, lived and spoken, delivered by the baptized members of the Body of Christ. It is an essential message of hope that is layered with visions of justice, peace, reconciliation, redemption, blessing, and healing. It is a message that helps us remember what has gone before, the graces and the sins, and bring ourselves by God's help where we need to be. We are called to do much more than sit home behind our closed doors. We have a message to deliver. Are we ready to do so?

It happened in those days that Jesus came from Nazareth of Galilee and was baptized in the Jordan by John. On coming up out of the water he saw the heavens being torn open and the Spirit, like a dove, descending upon him. And a voice came from the heavens, "You are my beloved Son; with you I am well pleased." - Mk 1:9-11

Family Prayer for Vocations

Loving God, thank you for the gift of children and parenthood. Help us to show our children how much you love them and yearn for their happiness. Help us to teach them that happiness comes through sharing their God-given gifts with others and by seeking your will. Help our family be open to your presence and to seek you in the Eucharist. Show us that when we seek you, we actually discover ourselves and our vocations more fully. Help us to love better and more. In Jesus' mighty name, Amen.
