Lenten Prayer for Transformation

Loving Father,

I invite you into my life today and make myself available to you.

Help me to become the best-version-of-myself by seeking your will and becoming a living example of your love in the world.

Open my heart to the areas of my life that need to change in order for me to carry out the mission and experience the joy you have imagined for my life.

Inspire me to live the Catholic faith in ways that are dynamic and engaging.

Make our community hungry for best practices and continuous learning.

Give me courage when I am afraid, hope when I am discouraged, and clarity in times of decision.

Teach me to enjoy uncertainty and lead your Church to become all you imagined it would be for the people of our times.

Amen.

Your 40 Day Journey of Amazing Possibilities: It's not what you give up. It's who you become.

Family Prayer for Vocations

Loving God, thank you for the gift of children and parenthood. Help us to show our children how much you love them and yearn for their happiness. Help us to teach them that happiness comes through sharing their God-given gifts with others and by seeking your will. Help our family be open to your presence and to seek you in the Eucharist. Show us that when we seek you, we actually discover ourselves and our vocations more fully. Help us to love better and more. In Jesus' mighty name, Amen.

Respect Life

In vivo abortions are being taught and practiced at the University of California, San Francisco (UCSF) School of Medicine! Our future doctors in America are being taught to conduct the most horrific and unimaginable crimes against humanity.

If you don't think this possible, remind yourself of what's now legally acceptable in New York State. Babies can now be aborted and killed right up to the moment of birth!

America's pro-abortion zealotry has reached unimaginable extremes! Now this in vivo practice raises the insanity to a level beyond anything you might have thought possible.

Medical students are being taught to induce late term abortions, deliver live babies, and then harvest the bodies for whatever organs are needed for research purposes. The fate of the babies was a death by whatever means. The rationale; it was an abortion; the baby was to die anyway.

Lenten Disciplines of Fasting & Abstinence

Catholics in good health ages 18 to 59 are required to fast and to abstain from meat on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday.

Fasting consists of eating only one meal, with the possibility of two smaller snacks that do not add up to a single full meal.

Catholics age 14 and older are to abstain from meat on all Fridays in Lent.

St. Charles-St. Ann Food Pantry THE SHELVES ARE BARE!!!!

As always, food and non food items are needed. Canned fruits and vegetables, soups of all kinds, tuna, mac and cheese, pasta, sauce, cereals of all kinds, peanut butter and jelly/jam.

We'd especially like to help our children in need with activities to keep them busy, happy and learning. Activity books, coloring books, flash cards, play doh, puzzles, colored pencils and plain paper tablets. Many of these children do not have access to electronics, computers, etc., and families need assistance to help with remote learning. Thank you again and again.

BE THE REASON SOMEONE SMILES TODAY!

Thank you for your continued generosity!

Three tips to deepen your relationship with God during the 40 days of Lent

1. Participate in the sacraments especially confession especially if its been awhile. The Light is on For You campaign is March 29th, from 4-7pm at St. Patrick and St. Brigid.

1. Help those in need around you, at home, at school, at the office
2. Sacrifice something that is hard for you and offer it up for someone you love.

Walk with Jesus this Lent and draw closer to Him.

Let us not allow the season of grace to pass in vain. Let us ask God to help us set out on a path of true conversion.

GOSPEL MEDITATION March 7, 2021 3rd Sunday of Lent

Many prefer a “create as you go” approach to life where laws and protocols primarily exist to secure and protect liberties rather than dictate and outline proper and right behavior. There are no real benchmarks for acceptable ethical and moral behavior, with a “you can’t tell me what to do” attitude prevailing. Parents are even limited in what they can request of their children, and dealing with threatening behaviors, especially from adults, are a challenge as well. Acceptable and expected conduct seems to amount to safeguarding each other’s space rather than increasing awareness of necessary relationships that require a more refined and higher response.

We have lost our axis to the world of “anything goes” and no longer see the Ten Commandments as practical and wise guideposts to effective living. We live on “relativism island” where only a possible suggestion to “love and do not harm” may be the only standard able to be preached. While Jesus most certainly emphasized love above anything else, it was never about warm fuzzy feelings or halfhearted humanitarian efforts. The love of which Jesus spoke establishes an intimate connection with God, neighbor, self, and creation. Because this love, who is God Himself, is at the foundational core of our lives, it demands actions and attitudes that serve to build up, increase, and free up those relationships. Love requires proper conduct. Preserving and enhancing these love centered relationships is at the heart of the Ten Commandments (and the Beatitudes) and the reason for Jesus’ display of anger in the temple.

The Ten Commandments can save the world from turmoil and conflict by instilling basic moral and relational principles within us. They also hold a healthy sense of sin in balance and always remind us of our relationship with God and the freedom God offers. Our faith preserves these jewels of truth that we often look beyond, dismiss altogether, or seek to remove from public view. Human beings can be so arrogant at times. Our Lenten journey, especially when embarked upon with sincerity and resolve, can restore all of our essential relationships. When we get absorbed in life’s preoccupations and demands, things can quickly get distorted and we can find ourselves way off track. In short, we find ourselves in sin. Humanity is losing a sense of both grace and sin. We need both to understand what is real and true. Until we do, the oppressive systems and ideologies that hurt so many will never change. We will never change. We are grateful for those courageous souls who willingly embrace the conversion and hard work Lent demands and stand against antiquated systems and ideologies. They give us hope that all is not lost.

For the month of March candles have been lit in loving memory of Phil and Ida Corso
by Kathy and Denny

Dear Lord,

Sometimes I react to people out of anger. I know you desire for me to have more self-control in this area. I pray that you would transform this part of my heart and help me to not sin in anger.

Help me to deal with this properly instead of irrationally.

Amen

Family Perspective

Today's gospel says Jesus chased the merchants out of the temple, it does not say

He was angry.

Jesus teaches us to act from conviction and not from anger.

He did not condemn the merchants,

only their business practice.

Attack the behavior

and not the person.

36TH ANNUAL HOUSE OF PROVIDENCE DINNER

At the Annual House of Providence Dinner, Catholic Charities of Onondaga County honors individuals for their exceptional leadership and service to the agency and our Central New York community. The 36th Annual House of Providence Dinner will be held on Wednesday, September 29, 2021 at the Oncenter as well as via a virtual livestream. All funds raised benefit Catholic Charities programs.

This year three exceptional individuals will be honored. The Bishop's Award will be presented to Monsignor Neal Quartier of the Cathedral for his dedication to actively serving people in Onondaga County.

The Presidents Award will be given to our own Hank Centore, member of the Ignatian Volunteer Corp and a volunteer at Catholic Charities' Emergency Service Food Pantry, in recognition of his contributions to the enhancement of the Onondaga County community.

Sharon Owens, Deputy Mayor, will receive the Humanitarian Services Award for her services to the community.

*Congratulations to all, but most especially our Hank.
Well done, good and faithful servant!!!!*

May their souls and all the souls of the Faithful Departed through the mercy of God rest in peace.

Carol Schoeneck

To all our parishioners and friends who continue to sacrifice for our good during these uncertain times. You are so appreciated. We are so grateful.

A Morning Prayer

Saturday, March 20, 2021

We won't be able to come together this year in one location, but we can still gather in smaller groups to enrich our faith, spend time in prayer and hear some great speakers.

You have two ways to participate:

The conference will live-stream from a host church.

Satellite churches throughout the diocese will host 10-50 men depending on their capacity. OR Men can participate in the live stream from their homes.
