Hope Appeal 2021

This weekend starts the beginning of the Hope Appeal. St. Patrick's and St. Brigid's Parish has been assessed at $34,793.05. This is a decrease of $7,333.93 over last year. As you know our assessment is based on our parish's regular income. With COVID last year our income as well as many other incomes was considerably and understandably lower than normal. Also last year our assessment was $42,126.98 of which due to COVID we only had to pay what we were able to collect. This year the Hope Appeal requirement is back to normal. We will be expected as a parish to pay our full assessment. The full amount of our assessment is due by December 31, 2021. That is only 16 weeks. If each family gave an annual donation to the Hope Appeal of $60. which is roughly $3.75 per week we would definitely meet our goal.

Thank you for all your continued support and generosity.

Father Kevin

Just a thought.....a couple of weeks ago, during his homily, Deacon Tony talked about being positive and appreciating the good in the world. So in answer to that challenge, a parishioner who wishes to remain anonymous, suggested writing down something positive- a good deed, an unexpected gift, that uplifted you. Not something you did, but were the recipient of.

The more we visualize, the greater the hope we will see.

There is a basket in the entrance of St. Charles. Please take a few moments to share some positivity!!!

Respect Life

"I find it extremely offensive that a law doesn't respect my life, and I won't stand for it. I want to change the law and I want to challenge people's perception of Down's Syndrome." That's what 26 year old Heidi Crowter told London's High Court about the fact that she has been subject to all kinds of abuse because of what the law teaches about Down syndrome. There is a 24 week limit on abortions in England, Wales and Scotland, except in the case of handicaps. Some 90 percent of women who find out they are carrying a baby with Down Syndrome abort. A mother of a young son with Down Syndrome joined the suit, testifying to the tremendous pressure that was put on her to abort and the guilt she was made to feel for fighting for her son's life. Don't Screen Us Out is a movement to change this aspect of the culture in the United Kingdom. God bless these women and may justice prevail. The attempt to eliminate people with Down Syndrome is a scourge we will have to answer for.

Twenty-Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Dear God,

*Enlighten my mind with truth; inflame my mind
with love;*

inspire me with courage:

enrich my life with service.

pardon what I have been;

sanctify what I am;

*order what I shall be and thine shall be the Glory
and mine the eternal salvation through Jesus Christ my Lord .*

Amen

Family Perspective

If we want to be happy at home,

we must commit ("lose ourselves") to our family.

If we try to be independent from others

("save ourselves"), we end up lonely and alone.

Happiness is found In commitments.

The gospel is true:

We save our life by losing it! .

by Bud Ozar

May their souls and all the souls of the faithful departed through the mercy of God rest in peace.

2021 Syracuse Catholic Women's Mini Conferences

Join women from around the Diocese of Syracuse as we celebrate our faith at four different parishes on four different dates, and be inspired by different speakers at each conference. In place of the Annual Syracuse Catholic Women's Conference, this year there will be four opportunities across the diocese to attend half-day Catholic Women's Mini-Conferences. All the mini-conferences will share the theme "Encountering Christ," and each speaker will present a unique spiritual reflection on the theme.

The first mini-conference is scheduled for Saturday, Sept. 11, at St. Thomas Aquinas Parish in Binghamton, featuring a pair of speakers, Sister Briege McKenna, O.S.C. and Father Pablo Escriva de Romani. Women in attendance will be inspired to encounter Christ through the power of the sacraments. Sister Briege and Father Pablo will also be leading a parish mission at St. Thomas Aquinas and St. Patrick's. Their biographical information can be found in the article on page 12.

In addition to presentations from the speakers, the morning will include the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. The main celebrant will be Bishop Douglas J. Lucia, with concelebrants Father Pablo Escriva de Romani, Msgr. John P. Putano and Father Thomas I. Ward. The mini-conference will offer opportunities for the Sacrament of Reconciliation and recitation of the Rosary, and will conclude with Adoration of Our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament and Benediction. For those unable to attend in person, the event will be livestreamed on the YouTube channel of St. Thomas Aquinas Church at www.youtube.com/c/SaintThomasAquinasBinghamton.

The other three Catholic Women's Mini-Conferences are scheduled for Saturday, Oct. 9; Saturday, Oct. 23; and Saturday, Nov. 13. The mini-conference on Oct. 9 will be held at St. Mary of the Assumption Parish and Shrine in Oswego, featuring speaker Father Mariusz Jarzabek, MIC. Originally from Poland, he is currently assigned to the National Shrine of the Divine Mercy in Stockbridge, Mass.

On Oct. 23, Sister Jane Dominic Laurel, a member of the St. Cecelia Congregation of Dominican Sisters, will present at the Basilica of the Sacred Heart of Jesus in Syracuse. She holds a doctorate in sacred theology, has contributed articles to a number of publications, including the Vatican newspaper, and is the founding director of the University of Dallas Studies in Catholic Faith & Culture Program.

The final mini-conference will be held on Saturday, Nov. 13, at St. Joseph and St. Patrick Church in Utica, featuring speaker Msgr. Stephen Joseph Rossetti. A priest of the Diocese of Syracuse, Msgr. Rossetti holds a Ph.D. in psychology and a doctor of ministry degree, and currently works as a chaplain for the Washington Nationals baseball team and as an exorcist for the Archdiocese of Washington. More information on the mini-conferences will be provided in future issues of the Catholic Sun.

Doors will open at 8 a.m. and the mini-conferences will conclude at 12:30 p.m. Online and mail-in registration is available and the cost for each event is $15 if preregistered, or $20 at the door.
