Hope Appeal 2021

Last weekend began the start of the Hope Appeal. St. Patrick's and St. Brigid's Parish has been assessed at $34,793.05. This is a decrease of $7,333.93 over last year. As you know our assessment is based on our parish's regular income. With COVID last year our income as well as many other incomes was considerably and understandably lower than normal. Also last year our assessment was $42,126.98 of which due to COVID we only had to pay what we were able to collect. This year the Hope Appeal requirement is back to normal. We will be expected as a parish to pay our full assessment. The full amount of our assessment is due by December 31, 2021. That is only 16 weeks. If each family gave an annual donation to the Hope Appeal of $60. which is roughly $3.75 per week we would definitely meet our goal.

Thank you for all your continued support and generosity.

Father Kevin

Dear Parishioners,

As we continue to navigate the CDC and Diocesan guidelines for COVID protocols, please be mindful that we are all in this together, and although face masks are not mandatory at this point, it is a suggested measure.

We ask that when entering a pew, please be sure to move toward the middle so others may find a spot. If you are most comfortable with social distancing, please do so, but please be aware of those around you that would like to be seated also.

Thank you!

We need your help! Looking for Volunteers!

Francis House, a vibrant, warm and loving home for persons who are terminally ill, is in need of volunteers. As a volunteer you can help meet the needs of our residents by working in our kitchen area where you will be responsible for cooking, cleaning and assisting our residents with meals. Also available are shifts in the reception area.

It is a most rewarding ministry and there are a variety of opportunities for service that may interest you. Currently, we have a big need during all shifts on weekends (8-12/12-4/4-7) and have openings during the week.

Please call Rea Carver for information at 315-475-5422 or you can email her at rcarver@francishouseny.org. Thank you!

Twenty-Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

O, Heavenly Father,

give me a heart like the heart of Jesus, a heart more ready to serve than to be served, a heart moved by compassion towards the weak and oppressed, a heart set upon the coming of your kingdom in the world of men and women .

Amen

Family Perspective

Disagreements are common in families. However, what would you say if Jesus posed the same question "What are you arguing about?" Is it silly or petty? Is it an attempt to impose your will and control another? Today Jesus tells us and his disciples to give it up. We are meant to serve each other, not control .

Respect Life

Once again, Archbishop Salvatore Cordileone of San Francisco has responded to House Speaker Nancy Pelosi after she cited her Catholic faith in defense of her efforts to permit federal funding of elective abortions, specifically through repealing the Hyde Amendment. In response, Archbishop Cordileone told Catholic News Agency, "Let me repeat: No one can claim to be a devout Catholic and condone the killing of innocent human life, let alone have the government pay for it. The right to life is a fundamental...human right.." He added that "to use the smokescreen of abortion as an issue of health and fairness to poor women is the epitome of hypocrisy." We pray for the conversion of all people who support abortion, especially leaders who can enact positive change in our country.

2021 Syracuse Catholic Women's Mini Conferences

Join women from around the Diocese of Syracuse as we celebrate our faith at four different parishes on four different dates, and be inspired by different speakers at each conference. In place of the Annual Syracuse Catholic Women's Conference, this year there will be four opportunities across the diocese to attend half-day Catholic Women's Mini-Conferences. All the mini-conferences will share the theme "Encountering Christ," and each speaker will present a unique spiritual reflection on the theme.

The first mini-conference is scheduled for Saturday, Sept. 11, at St. Thomas Aquinas Parish in Binghamton, featuring a pair of speakers, Sister Briege McKenna, O.S.C. and Father Pablo Escriva de Romani. Women in attendance will be inspired to encounter Christ through the power of the sacraments. Sister Briege and Father Pablo will also be leading a parish mission at St. Thomas Aquinas and St. Patrick's. Their biographical information can be found in the article on page 12.

In addition to presentations from the speakers, the morning will include the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. The main celebrant will be Bishop Douglas J. Lucia, with concelebrants Father Pablo Escriva de Romani, Msgr. John P. Putano and Father Thomas I. Ward. The mini-conference will offer opportunities for the Sacrament of Reconciliation and recitation of the Rosary, and will conclude with Adoration of Our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament and Benediction. For those unable to attend in person, the event will be livestreamed on the YouTube channel of St. Thomas Aquinas Church at www.youtube.com/c/SaintThomasAquinasBinghamton.

The other three Catholic Women's Mini-Conferences are scheduled for Saturday, Oct. 9; Saturday, Oct. 23; and Saturday, Nov. 13. The mini-conference on Oct. 9 will be held at St. Mary of the Assumption Parish and Shrine in Oswego, featuring speaker Father Mariusz Jarzabek, MIC. Originally from Poland, he is currently assigned to the National Shrine of the Divine Mercy in Stockbridge, Mass.

On Oct. 23, Sister Jane Dominic Laurel, a member of the St. Cecelia Congregation of Dominican Sisters, will present at the Basilica of the Sacred Heart of Jesus in Syracuse. She holds a doctorate in sacred theology, has contributed articles to a number of publications, including the Vatican newspaper, and is the founding director of the University of Dallas Studies in Catholic Faith & Culture Program.

The final mini-conference will be held on Saturday, Nov. 13, at St. Joseph and St. Patrick Church in Utica, featuring speaker Msgr. Stephen Joseph Rossetti. A priest of the Diocese of Syracuse, Msgr. Rossetti holds a Ph.D. in psychology and a doctor of ministry degree, and currently works as a chaplain for the Washington Nationals baseball team and as an exorcist for the Archdiocese of Washington. More information on the mini-conferences will be provided in future issues of the Catholic Sun.

Doors will open at 8 a.m. and the mini-conferences will conclude at 12:30 p.m. Online and mail-in registration is available and the cost for each event is $15 if preregistered, or $20 at the door.
