We are very excited to announce our 2022 Green Beer Sunday Grand Marshal-Jean Doner!

Jean Doner was born on Tennyson Ave in Tipp Hill, and has lived on Tennyson for her entire life, except for a few years in childhood and 1 year in the convent. While she's lived in 4 different houses on the street, she's been in her current house since 1964, where she raised her 5 children, Karen, Ed, RJ, Pat & Kristen. Growing up in the neighborhood, she was a friend to Peter and recalls him cutting through the Doner backyard from the Coleman house (the backyards abut.) She was married in St. Patrick's Church, and all her children attended St. Patrick's School. She first frequented Coleman's in 1956 (don't do the math on her age). For the last few years, she has loyally taken a "5K walk" (her term) from her house to the pub every Saturday afternoon with her son, joined sometimes by other family and friends. Anyone who frequents Coleman's on Saturday afternoons is sure to find Jean on a stool, ready to tell a detailed story to anyone who will listen!

8TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"A good tree does not bear rotten fruit, nor does a rotten tree bear good fruit. A good person out of the store of goodness in his heart produces good, but an evil person out of a store of evil produces evil; for from the fullness of the heart the mouth speaks." - Lk 6:43, 45

Dear God,

*I am asking you for help with following this simple path.
"Before judging others look at your own faults. This may sound like a cliché, but it contains practical wisdom:
Always blaming others and thinking of yourself infallible is an impediment in progress.
In general, be tolerant towards others and strict with yourself." Amen*

A Family Perspective

*Today Jesus tells us: "Why do you seek the speck in someone else's eye but miss the log in your own eye?"
It's always easier to try to change someone else than face the things in ourselves which need change.
What a waste of time for we can not change anyone but ourselves.
Bud Ozar*

Respect Life

New Zealand OK's euthanasia for COVID patients

Just days before Christmas, the government of New Zealand declared that patients admitted to a hospital with COVID-19 can die by euthanasia if doctors decide they might not survive. The Ministry of Health said the nation's new euthanasia law, which came into effect in November, could be extended to COVID-19 patients who were dying from the coronavirus or suffering unbearable from its consequences. Many consider the 2019 End of Life Choice Act to be one of the most extreme euthanasia laws in the world, and some even speculated prior to this announcement that it could be used to include COVID 19 patients. The Catechism of the Catholic Church clearly teaches that euthanasia "is morally unacceptable" in all situations (No. 2277). We are called to care for those who are suffering, not kill them.

Our most needed food items: Peanut butter and jelly, tuna fish, soups of all kinds,
