Father, we ask your assistance in letting go of ideals, old patterns or habits that no longer serve us, arguments and limited beliefs. May we remember that letting go is a healthy practice to maintain joy and peace within our hearts as well as our lives.

Family Perspective

Jesus connects PEACE and FORGIVENESS in today's gospel. In our families we will only experience peace to the extent that we forgive one another. Peace is purchased with the currency of forgiveness. When we allow our anger and pride to lock out others, we also lock out peace and harmony.

I hope you have been blessed this Easter season. You have blessed our parish and the Afghan refugees with a multitude of personal hygiene and cleaning items which will be donated to Catholic Charities Refugee Resettlement this week. You always come through and I want to personally thank everyone who donated this year. Imagine, leaving your country and having to settle in a country where you do not know the language, customs or even if you will be welcomed.

God Bless You All!

Sister Eileen

Respect Life

On March 8, the city council of Alexandria, VA, was set to consider a proclamation that was to recognize March 10 as "Abortion Provider Appreciation Day." According to the proclamation, this day would "celebrate the courage, compassion and the high quality care that abortion providers and clinic staff provide." Bishop Michael Burbridge of Arlington spoke out against the proposal and called on Catholic residents of Alexandria "to express their opposition to this proclamation," and for everyone else in the diocese to "proclaim the Gospel of life by word and example." However, following the outcry, Mayor Justin Wilson of Alexandria pulled the item from the agenda. We thank Bishop Burbridge for speaking out so strongly, and we implore Catholics to continue to speak out against all glorification of abortion.
