Grandparent Blessing

God, our heavenly father (on this week of the feast of St. Joachim and St. Anne- the grandparents of our Lord Jesus) we ask your blessing on these grandparents gathered here today. We recognize their treasured gifts to their families and to the parish family. They are valuable links, between the past and the present, passing on the family stories and traditions.

May they be surrounded with the love, respect and support of their families as they embrace their unique vocation. May they be strong models for their families and for our parish community. May they be anchors that provide stability and a firm foundation. May their witness to their faith guide and strengthen us.

Lord, bless and empower these grandparents. Help them share their distinct gifts with their families and all whom they encounter. Keep them in your love. Give them your joy and peace each day so that they may always follow your Son Jesus. Amen.

It's All in the Basket

St. Therese of Lisieux made a point of going the extra mile in kindness towards those people who really got under her skin. It was part of her own brand of Everyday Stewardship — thanking God for all His creation, even the parts with which, in her own humanness, she struggled to cope.

I think about this a lot when I challenge myself to give thanks for things that bother me and people who challenge me. When I do this, I envision Christ giving thanks over those insufficient loaves. How many of us would see that paltry little basket and kick a rock in frustration because we can't feed all our people? "You didn't give me enough, Lord! You didn't give me enough patience, enough money, enough creativity, enough stamina to be a good steward. If you had given me more, I could also give more!"

In those moments of despair, we need to take a good look at the life God has given us. We need to look at the trials and the challenges and the shortcomings. The hopes that didn't pan out, the disappointments that keep cropping up. Somewhere therein lies what we need to be the steward God asks us to be, just as St. Therese's own stewardship was defined by the people she simply couldn't stand.

God does not give us all we want. He does not give us all we ask for. He does us one better: He gives us all we need. It's all in the basket.

“Caring Community”- a new group!

A group of women in the parish have come up with the idea that the ladies of our churches should come together socially for camaraderie and connections!!

There are so many great women that we would like to get to know and share experiences. We are calling the group “Caring Community” with the express mission of caring for one another and, on occasion, activities to support our community. We hope to meet once a month to have coffee, maybe a lunch, or whatever direction we want to go as a group.

If you’d like to give it a try, please contact

Dear Father Maloney,

The Board of Directors and Volunteers at Birthright appreciate and are truly grateful for the generosity of your parishioners. Your joint parishes donated 14 bags of baby necessities and personal care items for mothers and their newborn babies to support new life in our CNY Community...amazing!

Your support is critical to our work.. Please share our thanks with all parishioners, your staff, especially Sister Eileen, for their kindness and dedication to life. We are blessed to receive such continued support and compassion of behalf of the unborn from friends in our community who are not only Pro-Life but Pro-Active as well. May God bless you abundantly for who you are to our community and what you do in His name.

Sincerest regards,

Dian Cima, Director and Board Member.

From the "Caring Community Group"

A new approach to our Food Pantries

In conjunction with both of our parish food pantries, a monthly theme will be announced to make it easier and simpler to remember what is needed. Reminders of each month's themes will appear in the bulletin along with colorful signs at each collection point. In August we will be collecting school supplies such as book bags, pencils, crayons (24 count preferred), spiral notebooks, loose-leaf paper, binders, and socks. We hope this new method will benefit both you and our pantries!

St. Charles– St. Ann Food Pantry

We will be looking for school supplies in the next few weeks.

Our food needs—mac and cheese, tuna, crackers, brownie and cookie mixes, frostings and vegetable oil.

Thank you for all you do to support our friends in need.
