Family Perspective By Bud Ozar

Even though many found the teachings of Jesus “difficult”, He did not back down. In our families, it is important to say what is difficult to hear, to speak the truth with kindness, to correct with love and guide with understanding.

From the “Caring Community Group”

A new approach to our Food Pantries

In conjunction with both of our parish food pantries, a monthly theme will be announced to make it easier and simpler to remember what is needed. Reminders of each month’s themes will appear in the bulletin along with colorful signs at each collection point. In August we will be collecting school supplies such as book bags, pencils, crayons (24 count preferred), spiral notebooks, loose-leaf paper, binders, and socks. We hope this new method will benefit both you and our pantries!

St. Patrick and St. Brigid Food Pantry

There are paper grocery bags in the vestibule with a grocery list attached of items needed for the Food Pantry. Feel free to take a bag, fill it and either drop it off at the pantry during their open hours or leave it in the vestibule. Thank you !

“Caring Community”- a new group!

A group of women in the parish have come up with the idea that the ladies of our churches should come together socially for camaraderie and connections!!

There are so many great women that we would like to get to know and share experiences. We are calling the group “Caring Community” with the express mission of caring for one another and, on occasion, activities to support our community. We hope to meet once a month to have coffee, maybe a lunch, or whatever direction we want to go as a group.

If you'd like to give it a try, please contact

PLEASE TAKE NOTE OF CHANGE OF TIME

Question: Why does Mary have so many feast days and names?

Answer: Christians first began celebrating feast days in honor of Mary, the Mother of Jesus, in the fifth century. That celebration (originally called the Feast of the Dormition and now known by Roman Catholics as the Solemnity of the Assumption) was celebrated on August 15. Very soon, however, other special days dedicated to Mary began to appear in Jerusalem, Rome, and other major cities of the Christian world. These days of feasting became important parts of the life of the community. But, more importantly, each of these unique celebrations became an opportunity to focus on a different facet of the Christian faith, as believers focused their attention on specific events or mysteries of the lives of Mary and her Son.

Over the centuries, some of these celebrations became universal (such as the Assumption on August 15, the Immaculate Conception on December 8, and the Solemnity of Mary, Mother of God on January 1). Other celebrations were more closely tied to certain religious orders (such as the Carmelites celebration of “Our Lady of Mount Carmel” on July 16 or the Servite Friars feast of the “Seven Sorrows of Mary,” which is now celebrated as the Memorial of Our Lady of Sorrows on September 15).

In more recent times, Marian apparitions (like Guadalupe, Lourdes, and Fatima) have inspired special liturgical celebrations. Pope Francis has added two new celebrations of Mary to the Church’s calendar: The Memorial of Mary, Mother of the Church (on the Monday after Pentecost) and the Commemoration of Our Lady of Loreto (on December 10). The various titles of Mary (like those we find in the Litany of the Blessed Virgin Mary) help us to reflect on different aspects of Mary’s faith and the ways that the Holy Spirit is at work in her and through her, especially as the Mother of Jesus.

In the end, whatever the event or mystery being celebrated in a particular liturgy or the title of Mary being used, we are invited to always see Mary in connection with the saving work of her Son. She is, of course, a patroness and protector for every Christian, but she is also a model of discipleship and contemplation: “Having entered deeply into the history of salvation, Mary, in a way, unites in her person and re-echoes the most important doctrines of the faith: and when she is the subject of preaching and worship she prompts the faithful to come to her Son, to his sacrifice and to the love of the Father”

Faith Formation will be starting soon. We are in need of catechists to work with our children. If you would like the opportunity to share your faith journey, we would love to have you!

For grades K-6 please contact either

Michael Goodnough at 315-475-2185 or
Maureen O’Sullivan at 315-468-1803

For grades 7-Confirmation please contact

Sharon Guglielmi at 315-468-1803.

All catechists must be VIRTUS trained as per the Diocese. The VIRTUS classes are given frequently so as to accommodate all.

The theological task of ministry leaders is to journey alongside children, youth, and their families as we open our hearts and minds to God at work in these youngest members of the Body of Christ.

Children and youth have all they need to do the important work of making meaning as they grow in their love of God and neighbor. If we are to encourage children as disciples of Christ, then we must honor all that God is doing in and through their lives, right now.
Please consider joining our team!

Respect Life

The Supreme Court of Alabama has ruled that human embryos procreated in IVF labs should be recognized as children. The decision arises from a 2020 lawsuit brought by parents seeking damages from an IVF lab for the accidental deaths of their frozen, embryonic children. A trial court dismissed their claim, but the state’s Supreme Court overruled that decision. The court explained that the state constitution recognizes the rights of pre-born children and that the term “minor children” in the state’s Wrongful Death of a Minor Act makes no distinction between in vitro and in utero children.

If it stands, the court’s ruling could have consequences for the IVF industry. Though it would not ban IVF, it could force labs to enact regulations preventing the disposal and sale of embryonic children.

We will be looking for school supplies in the next few weeks. Our non food items needed:

Bar soap, shampoo, deodorant. Thank you for all you do for our friends in need!
