Attention Parents

God's work is alive and well at Nazareth Farm in West Virginia. If you are interested in having your son or daughter participate in a faith-filled week of community and service this summer, helping one of the poorest regions in Appalachia completing service hours please call one of the numbers below. If your child is interested in National Honor Society this trip will look great on their application.

We are looking forward to having a parent meeting in early June to discuss this year's trip. Please note, participation is limited to rising High School Juniors or Seniors.

In the interim, please visit Nazareth Farm's website for additional information at www.nazarethfarm.org.

Altar Servers at SP-SB

Attention all children who have made their First Communion. You are now eligible to become an altar server. This year we will be losing 5 altar servers who are graduating from high school. Being an altar server is a wonderful ministry for children and a great way to be involved in the liturgy of the Mass. If you are interested in becoming an altar server please contact the rectory at 315-475-2185 and Mr. Goodnough will arrange for training.

RESPECT LIFE

Opposing Assisted Suicide in New York

Assisted suicide advocates are pushing this week to legalize this deadly practice in New York State. This bill threatens patients, caregivers, and especially the elderly and those with disabilities—which is antithetical to medical care. Catholics are called to respect and advocate for all human life. Though the Assembly has passed the bill, you can still voice your opposition by calling your Senate representatives today! To take action or learn more, visit nyscatholic.org or call the New York State Assembly

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC

Mini Reflection: What's so special about Pentecost that it wasn't until this moment — and not any of the equally world-changing moments that came in the weeks before it — that the Apostles became the Church?

Leaving the Room

I was a full-grown adult before I realized that Pentecost is known as “the birthday of the Church,” and it only resonated with me because someone showed up to a church function with cake and candles. Leave it to buttercream frosting to drive home a theological reality I had been missing for 25 years.

I knew what Pentecost was, of course. It simply went over my head that, despite all the incredible, world-changing things that had come before the moment of Pentecost, prior to this day, the Apostles were just a group of guys in a room. It wasn't until Pentecost that they became the Church.

So what makes the Church...well, the Church, capital C? What makes it more than just a group of guys in a room?

It's true, they were a very special group of guys. They had the Truth — capital T. They had borne witness to Christ's miracles, to his life and to his passion and death.

But they were still in that room.

When the time for Pentecost was fulfilled, the Holy Spirit came upon them, and they received graces and gifts that made them fit to carry out the Great Commission. The Truth wasn't enough, even with a capital T. They needed the Spirit — capital S — and more than that, they needed to receive it with the courage and faith necessary to do what needed to be done.

To get up and leave the room.

Because what good is any of it unless they leave the room? What does it matter, the tongues of fire and the miraculous bilingualism and, frankly, the coming of the Spirit, if no one ever hears about it?

The mission is what made them the Church. It's what makes us the Church. Without it, we're just a bunch of guys in a room.

Why do we do that? Catholic Life Explained

Question:

Why do we use incense at Mass?

Answer:

The use of incense in religious ceremonies and worship is a practice that predates Christianity, and which is also found in many other religious traditions today.

Incense, which is made from resin infused with aromatic spices and oils, is one of those fundamentally human symbols that incorporates more than one of our senses, helping us to reflect on realities that transcend the everyday details of our lives.

The use of incense in the Church's liturgy — in the Mass, as well as in devotions to the Eucharist and the Liturgy of the Hours — is inspired by the use of incense in the Jewish tradition. In the writings of the Old Testament, we hear about incense being used in the worship of the temple, and Psalm 141 asks, “Let my prayer be incense before you; my uplifted hands an evening offering” (vs. 2). The image here is that, as the incense gently rises to heaven, our prayers also rise to God as something sweet and pleasant.

Another ancient use of incense that has also become part of our Catholic tradition is the idea that when we incense something, it's because it is something special or sacred. This is why the Book of the Gospel is incensed during the Liturgy of the Word and the bread, wine, priest celebrant, and congregation are incensed at the presentation of the gifts. To this, we can also add the incensing of the Blessed Sacrament during eucharistic adoration and benediction, and the body of the deceased at the end of the Mass of the Resurrection (the Funeral Mass).
