CARING COMMUNITY

Caring Community is a group of women who gather monthly to benefit our community, but also to get to know more people in our parishes. They have sponsored collections for Syracuse School Children and Veterans at the VA Hospital. They have also sent cards to some of our homebound parishioners, people in local residences and nursing homes and to Veterans. They even made floral arrangements for some!

There have also been speakers at some meetings, and we have learned new skills and games! The best part of this group is getting to know more people in our parish communities! All women in our parishes and communities are welcome to come any time! Please join us for any of our upcoming meetings:

Mornings: FRIDAYS 10AM at Solvay Library Community Room, Lower Level:

Apr. 10, May 8

Evenings: TUESDAYS 6:30PM at Walberta Park School Meeting Room- (Enter by the bus loop)
