Please join us to pray the rosary on Sunday evenings,
7pm at St. Charles– St. Ann.

Bring your intentions, your worries, your needs and pray in community with us as we pray for the sick, for peace and for Mary’s intercession.

Many, many thanks to our faithful parishioners that support our food pantry and outreach. Again, you have shown such generosity to the families that we assist regularly, but in these difficult economic times, the instability of food prices, gas prices, etc., the need is more apparent than ever.

We are blessed immeasurably. Thank you again and again.

May the peace of the risen Christ be with you today and always.

Happy Easter!

Caring Community News

Caring Community is a group of women who gather monthly to benefit our community, but also to get to know more people in our parishes. They have sponsored collections for Syracuse School Children and Veterans at the VA Hospital. They have also sent cards to some of our homebound parishioners, people in local residences and nursing homes and to Veterans. They even made floral arrangements for some!

There have also been speakers at some meetings, and we have learned new skills and games! The best part of this group is getting to know more people in our parish communities! All women in our parishes and communities are welcome to come any time! Please join us for any of our upcoming meetings:

Mornings: FRIDAYS 10AM at Solvay Library Community Room, Lower Level:

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Mini reflection: There is a reason Christ showed his wounds as he said the words, “Peace be with you.” It was not just a means of identifying himself — it was a catechism lesson. Here, he was saying. Here is the peace you will not find anywhere else.

Within Thy Wounds

The prayer I love best in the world is the Anima Christi. This private, devotional litany of supplication, begins with the phrase “anima Christi, sanctifica me” (“soul of Christ, sanctify me”) and continues on to appeal individually to each aspect of Our Lord’s crucified flesh: “Body of Christ, save me; blood of Christ, inebriate me; water from Christ’s side, wash me; passion of Christ, strengthen me; Oh good Jesus, hear me.”

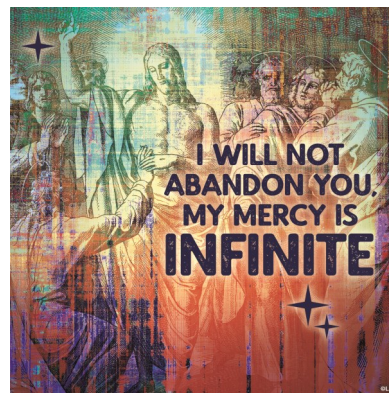

Then comes my favorite part: “within thy wounds hide me.”

The Anima Christi is a prayer traditionally said after receiving Holy Communion. The ancient Celts spoke of liminal places, where the veil separating this world from the next is particularly thin, and I believe the moments immediately following the reception of Holy Communion, when the Host is dissolving on my tongue, create a liminal place. When I am in that place, I am as intimately connected to God as I can be while my heart is still beating.

And when I am there, holding God within me, what are the words that I speak? It’s overwhelming to think about. What could possibly be right to say?

There is no right or wrong answer, I suppose. But the best words I can think of are these: “Within thy wounds, Lord, hide me.”

There is a reason Christ showed his wounds as he said the words, “Peace be with you.” It was not just a means of identifying himself — it was a catechism lesson. Here, he was saying. Here is the peace you will not find anywhere else.

On Holy Saturday morning we had the good fortune of a beautiful day for our annual Easter Egg Hunt.

The Easter bunny was there to greet the children and our Confirmation students graciously kept watch over the “littles” while they were hunting for their treasures.

When it was all done, 938 eggs were discovered and the Confirmation students then went down to Haydon Hall to set up chairs for the parishioners that watched the Easter morning Mass simulcasted.

It was a great Triduum and we are so grateful to all those that made it possible. Happy Easter!

He is Risen indeed! Alleluia! Alleluia!

We invite the community to attend a Mass for People with Special Needs at the Basilica on:

Saturday April 18, 2026 at the 4:00pm
Mass.

People with special needs resulting from physical, emotional, mental or cognitive conditions are all around us in society, at school, at work and in our families. Unfortunately, it can sometimes be challenging for these important members of our society to participate in liturgies due to physical and social barriers – or even family member anxiety. Celebrating a Mass for People with Special Needs can be the first of many steps toward integrating them into regular weekly or even daily Mass – and more deeply into all of the sacraments and other aspects of parish life. Putting their faith into action, The Basilica of the Sacred Heart of Jesus and Sacred Heart Council #6282 Knights of Columbus is hosting this special Mass and hopes to spread the message that all of God’s children are welcome under the parish roof and that every person is an integral part of the parish family.
